HASKELL BRANDS HEARST

As An Assassin of Character—A Red-hot Roast from the Governor of Oklahoma

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma last night gave out the following telegram, which, he said, he had sent to William Randolph Hearst: "William R. Hearst, care New York American, New York City, N. Y. 'Sir: You are stating in speech and press in substance that during the year 1893, when Attorney General Frank S. Monnet, of Ohio, had several cases pending in the Supreme Court of that state against the Standard Oil Company, I sought to influence him to dismiss those suits. I have said, and now repeat, that your statement is absolutely false, and that I never had any relations of any kind or character with the Standard Oil Company. Our conflicting statements prove nothing. You, as a newspaper man, may, and should, desire a reputation for truthfulness; I, as a public official, demand that those who accuse me stand forth and make known their proof. 'You know that a suit against you for civil damages, or a criminal prosecution for libel, means long delay and affords your character of journalism a chance to cover your expenses before being called upon to settle. I do not want your money; I simply desire to expose you to the public as a false accuser, who has distorted public records and manufactured statements for base political purposes. 'For the purpose of forever settling this infamous slander which you are circulating in your newspapers and on the stump, I now propose that a committee of five, or any three of them, composed of the editors of the Springfield, Mass., Republican, the Chicago Journal, the New York World, the Indianapolis News and the St. Louis Republic, be selected to hear you and me under oath and all other evidence they may desire as to the truth or falsity of your charge at the earliest possible moment and render their decision to the public in writing. Should this committee find your charge sustained I shall at once withdraw from all connection with the presidential campaign. Should the verdict be against you, as I know it will, there need be no other penalty than the public contempt due every assassin of character. 'C. N. Haskell.'"

CRANE NOW CHIEF OF THE COMMITTEE

Frank Hitchcock's Management of the Campaign Didn't Suit the Republicans

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—The knowledge of the fact that as a result of the expressed dissatisfaction with the management of the republican campaign, Chairman Hitchcock on last Thursday, offered to resign, came to light yesterday, following the news that Hitchcock had been virtually dethroned and succeeded by Senator Murray L. Crane, though Hitchcock will continue as the nominal head of the committee.

The decision that a change was necessary was reached last Thursday at a meeting of the advisory committee held in New York. It turned out that Hitchcock was relying to a great extent for information and guidance upon young and inexperienced men in the different localities. The result of the meeting was that a vigorous campaign will be prosecuted from now on and new methods of raising funds will be adopted.

ANOTHER FIRE IN CHELSEA

Chelsea, Mass., Sept. 22.—That portion of Chelsea spared by the "great conflagration" last winter was swept swept yesterday by another great fire. By 9 o'clock sixteen houses and a large showcase factory had been destroyed. A shift in the direction of the wind saved the city, but before the flames were controlled thirteen acres had been devastated and a million dollars damage done.

CONFESSED THE CRIME

A Negro Tramp Admits That He Killed Mrs. Norman and Her Daughter

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 22.—Walter Ledbetter, a negro tramp, was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Bowden in the settlement of Marietta and confessed to the killing of Mrs. Norman and her daughter there Saturday.

As soon as the residents of the settlement learned that the negro had been captured there were threats of a lynching, but the negro was safely lodged in the Duval county jail, where he is under guard. A speedy trial is now being arranged for the negro.

Ledbetter told the following story of the crime to Sheriff Bowden: "I went over to the Norman house to get some greens and old Mrs. Norman was mending a plow. She afterward sat on the steps and I got to thinking about being broke and I thought how easy it would be to hit her on the head with the meat chopper which I use for splitting kindling, so I tapped her quite heavily and she dropped dead on the ground. I then went to the kitchen and saw Miss Eliza ironing clothes, and I tapped her, too, on the back of the head. She fell to the floor and I saw her kicking, and knowing that she wasn't dead, I hit her several times more on the head, neck and face.

"I looked in her pockets and took 15 cents out and then went out of the house. I threw the ax over the fence when I was going into the house. I broke open the trunk in the house and found a pocketbook, which had about $4 in it. I then went out the front gate, down the dirt road to the branch and then into Jacksonville. I stayed in Jacksonville all day, buying things, and then went back home on the night train."

A FAREWELL TO AUSTRALIA

Signalled by the American Battleships as They Passed the Harbor of Perth

Perth, Western Australia, Sept. 22.—The American fleet of battleships passed this coast this yesterday on the long run to Manila. The fleet was proceeding in two columns, the Connecticut and Louisiana leading. The warships turned to the west about 1 o'clock and a large number of pleasure craft crowded with sight-seers followed them for some twenty miles to sea.

Sunday night the trains reaching this city brought vast numbers of Australians, all bent on catching at least a glimpse of the American fleet. Many of them traveled hundreds of miles and today the railroad stations were thronged with people on their way to Fremantle, which is the chief port of Western Australia, at the mouth of the Swan river, twelve miles south of Perth. From Fremantle a score of pleasure boats, with crowds of enthusiasts aboard, steamed out to Rottnest Island, which lies several miles off the coast.

The white ships of the United States came up slowly, about six miles off the island, and were greeted with a noisy demonstration by the small steamers and those on board. The Australian steamship Knawona signalled to the fleet the particulars of the wreck of the steamship Aeon, whose passengers are now on Christmas Island. Rear Admiral Sperry signalled his thanks for the news and added: "Cannot stop; good-bye."

ONLY A FORMAL ENTRANCE

Cholera Will Keep Men Aboard Ship at Manila

Manila, P. I., Sept. 22.—With cholera cases developing at the rate of sixty a day, one third of which are fatal, this week will determine whether the visit of the fleet will be any more than a formal entrance into the harbor. The authorities are hopeful that the disease will be checked before the fleet arrives so that the program of festivities will be carried out.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.
